Community Invited to Enter Penguin Chick Naming Contest

Syracuse, N.Y. (March 23, 2015) – Members of the community are invited to enter the Rosamond Gifford Zoo’s online naming contest to help select the names of two Humboldt penguin chicks hatched earlier this season. “Chick A” hatched on January 9 to Mario and Montaña. “Chick B” hatched on January 21 to Frederico and Poquita. It has now been determined that the chicks are both female. The naming contest begins today.

Humboldt penguins live along the coast of Peru and Chile in the Humboldt Current. They are endangered, with an estimated 10,000 to 12,000 surviving in the wild. Given the native habitat of Humboldt penguins, names of Spanish origin are preferred and strongly encouraged for the contest. Contest entrants should also include a brief explanation of why they suggested the name.

Penguin Chick Naming Contest Guidelines:

- Name suggestions will be taken for five days, March 23-27, on the contest page: rosamondgiffordzoo.org/naming-contest.
- All entries must be received by 4 p.m. on March 27.
- The contest is open to ages five and older, with a limit of one submission per person.
- Classrooms, scout troops and other community groups are encouraged to enter.
- A committee at the zoo will select the top five names from those suggested.
- Top names will be posted on the contest page for voting for five days, April 6-10.
- Voting closes at 4 p.m. on April 10.
- The two names that receive the highest number of votes will be selected as the winners.
- Winning names will be announced via a media alert and on the zoo’s website and social media platforms on April 14.
- The winners will each receive a Humboldt penguin Adopt an Animal package courtesy of Friends of the Zoo.
