

Wildlife Trail

Because the animals at the zoo reside in naturalistic habitats, they are sometimes not immediately visible. They might be napping in tall grass or behind a tree. The zoo is open year 'round and the animals' activities vary depending on the season. Remember, winter is one of the best seasons to see our animals!

